

Career Interview

Student Name: _____

Adult Interviewed: _____

Adult's Job/Career: _____

Date: _____

Purpose

In this quest, you will interview a real adult in your life about their work.

This adult could be a parent, guardian, relative, family friend, neighbor, coach, teacher, or another trusted adult.

Your goal is to learn about their career journey, what they do, how they got there, and what advice they have for someone your age. Listen closely. You may discover that every career path has its own story, challenges, rewards, and lessons.

Directions

Ask the adult the questions below. You may write their answers in complete sentences or detailed notes.

Be respectful of their time. This interview should not take too long, but try to ask follow-up questions if something they say is interesting or surprising.

Interview Questions

1. What is your current job or career?

What do you do on a normal workday?

Adult's Answer:

2. How long have you worked in this career or field?

Adult's Answer:

3. What kind of education, training, or classes helped you prepare for this career?

Adult's Answer:

4. Did you need any certifications, licenses, tests, or special requirements for this job?

If yes, what were they?

Adult's Answer:

5. What made you choose this career or field?

Adult's Answer:

6. What is one part of your job that you enjoy or find rewarding?

Adult's Answer:

7. What is one challenge or difficult part of your job?

Adult's Answer:

8. What skills do you use most in your work?

Examples: communication, problem-solving, creativity, teamwork, organization, technology, leadership.

Adult's Answer:

9. What kind of work environment helps you feel comfortable and productive?

For example, do you prefer quiet or busy spaces, working alone or with others, lots of structure or more flexibility? Is there anything you would change about your current work environment to help you do your best work?

Adult's Answer:

10. What advice would you give to a middle school student who is starting to think about their future?

Adult's Answer:

Student Reflection

After the interview, answer the reflection questions below in your own words.

1. What is one thing you learned that surprised you?

My Reflection:

2. What is one thing about this adult's career journey that inspired you?

My Reflection:

3. Did this interview make you think differently about work, careers, or your own future? Explain.

My Reflection:

Optional Legendary Horizon Quest Title

Echoes of Experience

You have spoken with a real-world mentor and gathered wisdom from their journey. Their story may help you understand your own path, your own preferences, and the kind of future that may fit the Traveler you are becoming.